

Dexter S03xE04

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode (Rahmat Vahdani)

1. Bum knee = injured knee
2. The same MO = method
3. Crowbarred open = open with a crowbar, A crowbar, wrecking bar, pry bar, or prybar, pinch-bar or sometimes a prise bar, prisebar, and more informally a jimmy, jimmy bar, jemmy or PikiPiki[1] or gooseneck is a tool consisting of a metal bar with a single curved end and flattened points, often with a small fissure on one or both ends for removing nails.
4. B&E gone sideways = breaking and entering, illegal entry
5. Now I have to comp the honeymoon suite = offer free
6. Preaching to the choir = you don't need to explain to us
7. Keynote address = most important
8. Ganache frosting =
9. I like the sound of the quid. What's the pro quo? = what do you want in exchange?
10. The shit is going to be flying in your direction = you will be in trouble
11. Two fingers (Scotch)= little amount of a drink

Dexter S03xE05 (sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode (Rahmat Vahdani)

1. This is how Custer must have felt = General Custer Armstrong who died fighting the Indians
2. I've got unis bringing in sb = cops in uniform
3. bupkis = Nothing, nada, zilch, zippo
Example: I lost all my money in the stock market so now I have bupkis .
4. due diligence = noun Law reasonable steps taken by a person in order to avoid committing an offence, especially in buying or selling something
5. roach coach = Mobile food trucks, nicknamed "roach coaches" or "gut trucks," have been around for years, serving construction sites, factories, and other blue-collar locations. In big cities of the U.S. the food truck traditionally provided a means for the on-the-go person to grab a quick bite at a low cost.
6. Ink in the papillary and reticular dermis
7. Strangulation = choking
8. f... pad = small apartment for purposes
9. move decoys around = change tricks
10. sandbag the other team = sabotage, treat unfairly

11. schedule some showings = occasion when you are taken to see apartments before you rent or buy them
12. Looking for you-know-who = sb whose name I forgot, or it is a secret
13. She will be waiting up = not go to bed

Dexter S03xE06 (sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

Lowlifes = bad criminals

Keep me in the loop = inform me, update me

Keep it under wraps = keep it secret

With your people skill = since you are sociable and friendly with others

Sink that low = stoop to a low level

Throw in with these bottom eaters = join or associate with bad people

Hear unexpurgated version = the naked truth

Let's how this thing calls to me = how it plays out

You left behind a debris field = ruined everything

Im not helping your spic ass with shit

Im your wheelman

I would have Prep-walked him

Sandpaper enema

She is so gung ho to bring you down = excited, eager

Those are in short supply these days = few

Dexter S03xE07 (sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

1. Play a quick nine = a shorter game of golf than an 18 one
2. He bolts = leaves, escapes
3. College valedictorian = the student who has received the best marks all the way through school, and who usually makes a speech at the
4. Jimmy the front window = open the window with a crowbar
5. Took a swing at the perp = attacked
6. I lay you odds he walks again = I am sure
7. CI = confidential informant
8. At the ass-crack of dawn = too early in the morning
9. Maybe you are reading into it = misunderstand
10. Broad strokes? = main issues?

11. Tipsters calling in = people with tips
12. Wear your flak jacket = bullet-proof jacket
13. You spout off about justice and ... = pretentiously talking
14. For a fast buck = quick easy money that is earned unscrupulously
15. How many pro bonos do you get Miguel?
16. The caffeine is giving you Tourette's = tics
17. Dead-bolts
18. That's a kind of a button with you
19. Cloud up one's thinking
20. You reigned me in
21. Pancuronium
- 22.

Dexter S03xE08 (sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

1. He's kind of a dweeb = a weak, strange not fashionable person
2. Bonehead mistake = stupid mistake
3. He bludgeons people to death = batter, beat, hit, clobber
4. Thirty grand in the whole
5. Good D = good defense
6. You got a little money riding on this? = gambling
7. Beat the points spread = very close in results
8. He jobbed us = cheated us
9. Issue a BOLO = As used by American police, the term dates to at least 1960. An all-points bulletin can also be known as a BOLO or BOL, which stands for "be on the look-out". Such an alert may also be called a lookout or ATL ("attempt to locate"). It is a radio message sent to every officer in a police force giving details of a suspected criminal or stolen vehicle.
10. He turns to jello = he gets too scared

Dexter S03xE09 (Sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

1. Pull in some off-duties to man the phone bank = use everyone to look into the database
2. He was out till all hours last night = very late

3. Go half-cocked = do sth without thinking properly
4. That camera has been on the fritz = broken, not working properly

Dexter S03xE10 (Sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

Pumpkin and sage ravioli

Grease it = sooner

She's ripe for the picking

Dexter S03xE11 (Sabay Sahar, ieltstoeflcenter.com)

Idioms, slangs and expressions used in the episode

Squeeze in a power nap = short sleep which makes you stronger

The less left to chance, the better = leave no room for mistakes and chance

Dongs and gongs required = only men

Giving me the run-around = سردواندن

That requires finesse = skill

Blow me = shut up, I do not care