

94.09.27 Workshop FRI Session 33 Huge Salaries

1. We need to ensure people such as pop stars do not earn such huge salaries
2. Take the example of Katy Perry
3. In what way does she benefit society?
4. It's hard to see in what way she benefits society
5. In fact, her behavior can adversely affect young people
6. Jealousy  relationships
7. Frequent correction learning
8. Binge watching health
9. Youth might become encouraged to experiment with drugs and najesijats
10. They might even develop a materialistic attitude
11. Her job does not require special skills
12. There is no justification for such revenues/earnings
13. Some professions require high skills and years of education
14. They also help other people and the community
15. Both And/not only But also
16. They are more essential to society than entertainment and sport figures
17. Their salaries should reflect their dedication
18. They face heavy responsibilities in their jobs
19. However, the question remains as to how we can make salaries fairer
20. Pop stars receive royalties from sales of their records or concert tickets
21. We can levy higher taxes for people earning excessively high salaries
22. Constant media attention
23. Those at the top are paid huge salaries
24. They live extravagant lifestyles
25. This is unfair
26. Especially when you compare their earnings with those of other professions
27. What is their contribution to society
28. What contribution do they make to society
29. They do not hold a high level of responsibility
30. They can generate a high level of public support
31. The number of professionals with real talent is very small
32. The money is a recognition of their skills
33. There is constant competition
34. A player is being constantly tested
35. They have a relatively short career
36. The pressure from the media is intense
37. There is little privacy out of the spotlight

Good luck!
