

What are the main tasks of universities: to offer students' knowledge and skills essential for their career, or to provide students with access to knowledge itself?
What do you think university education should contain?

Fast-Changing world nowadays requires societies to be ~~en~~ adapted to modern technologies. It is undeniable that universities play a vital role in this manner. Indeed, universities are not only improving youth's academic knowledge, but ~~they are it is~~ also developing the culture of the community. I personally, believe that the universities are duty-~~bound~~ to provide students to be success~~ful~~ in their both personal and professional lives.

Obviously, modern economies place a premium on educated work forces. In other words, employees who obtain higher education will be given priority over ~~those~~ who are skilled just only ~~based biased~~ on experience. The most important cause is ~~that~~ these days workers are highly demanded ~~to have the on~~ ability to operat~~ing~~ high tech equipment. Thus, they should possess good enough knowledge in a wide range of information. However, the university is the best place to keep abreast of high standard occupations. Evidence From official statistics indicates that job seekers who have ~~been~~ passed extra training courses have more chances to obtain better job positions.

Sometimes ~~we~~ might ~~we~~ find university's courses a bit boring, or probably it seems that basic sciences like mathematics, physics, statistics and others are not useful for our future. But in real~~ity~~, these are not only the best training for students' mind to make it sharply, but ~~also it is also~~ will help them to solve their ~~complicated confuse upcoming-their real life~~ problems in the future. Also, besides basic sciences, it should be very useful to possess professional trainings, ranging from those learnt in their field to those in other relevant subjects. Furthermore, it is undeniable that higher education is ~~really~~ mandatory to keep yourself in ~~a~~ high- quality standard of life.

In conclusion, university is the best place for promoting community members to acquire higher level~~s~~ of life quality standards. Likewise, In comparison with ~~the~~ others who do not have academic education, university-educated skill~~ed~~ workers, have a good chance of better opportunities.
