

2. Do you agree or disagree with the following statement?

It is easier to become an educated person today than it was in the past. Use reasons and examples to support your position.

Learning is one of the issues that every person has to face ~~it~~. Nowadays, everything is changing differently from the past. In my opinion, it's much simpler to turn into a the scholarly person than it was in the past long ago. I take this view on account of the following reasons.

To begin with, the number of universities has been increased and because of that more people can go to the university. In addition, there is a lot of variety for the majors. In the past, there were are a few majors s but today ~~the~~ people can participate in a large range of academic programs. At some universitiesy, you can take online courses so you don't have to go to university and study directly. Hence, you can work and study at the same time which is quiet good for the people ~~whom their~~whose age is much bigger than the usual student. You can also apply for foreign countriesy and study abroad. In the past, it was is more difficult to study abroad. As the part of the world is more connected to each other by the internet, it's much undemanding to search and see others' articles so ~~an~~ educated people are more connected and in larger numbers increased than any other time.

Moreover, learning is much simpler by using the powerful tools such as Internet. Today, you can review many courses online and obtain get familiar with lots of information. Furthermore, there are many websites which include are concluded much/extensive many required information that could help you to become a the knowledgeable person. As an illustration, one of the sharing sites s which includes much video content Video's stuff is YouTube which ~~YouTube~~ has many videos ~~that~~ relating to learning about almost anything. Therefore, many people create their own group which contains many educational subjects. It's also useful for the other people. The world has become much closer and thanks to the internet, many groups are created for each major ~~that~~ where they can discuss and learn from each other. As such, the new generation is much more intellectual than the previous one.

Simply put, the majority of ~~the~~ people know lots of issues. In fact, people try to learn more and more and increase their knowledge and become ~~an~~ educated ~~people~~.
