

Fatherhood ought to be emphasized as much as motherhood. The idea that women are solely responsible for deciding whether or not to have babies lead on to the idea that they are also responsible for bringing the children up. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

Giving birth to a baby has always been of a great importance to couples and needs considering the first essential provisions required to supply their demands. Not only must they support them financially but also morally and psychologically. The debate here is as to how parents have to share responsibilities between themselves.

According to the old-fashion attitudes, mothers play the major role ~~of in~~ children's life. This comes from a situation in which mothers stayed at home in order to do merely house affairs and bring up their offspring. Nowadays, those formerly ~~socially~~ inactive female members are working in society exactly the same way ~~as~~ men do. Hence, some portions of ~~the~~ motherhood concept have transformed to new ones and ~~the~~ child-rearing ~~ren-rearing~~ burden cannot be all on mothers' shoulders. Although mankind has usually been under ~~the~~ mother's kindness wings, prominent fatherhood duties should be noticed. ~~That it~~ is true ~~that~~ we acquire lots of morality traits from our mother but lack of being in touch with the father results in some deficiencies in children's character. In fact, fathers have to devote ~~the parts~~ of their leisure time to spending with their offspring as well. Playing, speaking around issues, having fun and these kinds of allocations assist in forming ~~healthier children~~ physically, mentally and emotionally ~~healthier children~~. This requirement becomes more evident whenever children encounter their counterparts' fathers' close relation whereas they have been ~~withholddenied~~.

To sum up, I opine that a couple are in ~~the a~~ position to deliver a baby only when ~~they~~ are ~~they both~~ prepared for sharing every chore to dedicate themselves analogously to their child from ~~the~~ birth to ~~the~~ youth, ~~otherwise-~~ ~~Otherwise~~ they ought to stop thinking of parenthood.
