

Topic

Many countries aim to improve their living standard by economic developments, but some important Social values are lost as result

Do you think the advantages of economic development weigh the disadvantage?

These days, many countries lead people to developing their lives. The government adopts a policy on the basis of social prosperity that includes healthy living standards, welfare and employment. Improving living standards by economic development, people enhance their lives. Otherwise economic development may eradicate some important social values through neglecting moral values.

First and foremost, most people in their daily lives, believe in increasing the value of their assets and properties which help them to promote their lives. The government prepares the ground for the facility . by promoting living standards level by suitable loan assistance donor facilities and economic developments, people raise their demands for higher salaries.

Wage increase and welfare services make ~~more dissatisfied~~ people more dissatisfied with their current status, so they will not note-pay attention to human values. as a result, they cause the ills of society.

In developing countries, people often ~~do are~~ not supported by the government, hence they try to earn money more and more. However, they resort to anti-worth unethical measure such as bribery, lies and money laundering. ~~Social anti-worth anti-social~~ measures cause people to spoil a healthy social structure. Although they increase their income, They cause unethical practice to prevail in society .

It is a fact that not only ~~do they not don't~~ pay attention to social values but also, individuals will ~~effect-affecton~~ the future generation. consequently corruption is ~~desensitized~~ and institutionalized in society.

To sum up, in every community the duty of preserving ~~to~~ social values is on ~~their the~~ shoulder of people. ~~With-by~~ preparing the ground for welfare living for reaching ~~to~~ perfection, people will ensure their happiness and will be well-meaning together.