

The quality of life in some cities is getting worse. What is the main cause of this and what solution can you suggest?

In recent decades, living in urban areas ~~have has~~ become a prevalent trend. There is a widely held perception that the circumstances in megacities have been exacerbated which stems from a great deal of crime and pollution, ~~therefore~~ The authorities should take some steps either to ~~decline-~~ ~~ameliorate~~ the problems or ~~make encourage~~ individuals emigrate from metropolitans. The essay turns the spotlight on these problems, which are quite common, and ~~offers~~ solutions as to how to get rid of such unwelcome conditions.

On one hand, ~~by growing with the growth in the number of~~ residents in megacities people have far more troubles to tackle ~~with~~; difficulties like poverty or some psychological perplexing disorders lead cities to be faced with ~~existing~~ a plethora of culprits, hence ~~unsecure insecure~~ districts. Moreover, finding more job opportunities, individuals immigrate to larger towns that ends in intensifying inhabitants' density, hence the air contamination.

~~What is more as for ways of fighting back~~, there should be at least one proper solution for every single problem. Although social workers have been trying hard to reduce the amount of felony, they still fail to succeed in solving this issue, entirely; That means, needed are more efforts and research, which can be more efficient. Besides, the best way to address such common issues ~~the government is-~~ ~~had~~ better ~~to~~ encourage citizens migrate to ~~the countryside country sides~~ or smaller cities by serving more ~~convenient attitudes amenities in-~~ health-wise, administrative and educational fields. All in all, by decreasing citizens in numbers, contamination's issue might be solved for the years yet to come.

In brief, according to the causes and solutions mentioned above, the key factor ~~of in~~ addressing all that matters in ~~metropolitans metropolises~~ nowadays is in the hands of government. That is to say, by offering better life conditions they can convince people to be more ~~inclined with to/towards~~ ~~emigrating immigrating~~ to other regions like rural areas. The more populaces' density ~~is reduced~~, the higher quality of life ~~will~~ individuals ~~will~~ be engaged with in every mega city.
