Write a letter to your friend asking him to accompany you. In your letter,

- Explain where and when you want to go
- Give details of the travel, dates and costs involved
- Describe some of the things you want to do

Dear Ali,

I thought you should be interested in an overseas trip I'm going to book for the next month to Malaysia. I have a good plan for the journey and I am ~~wondering thinking of that we will be~~ doing some entertaining activities.

First of all, let me tell you about the details. We're going to have a two-week ~~residence stay~~ in Kuala Lumpur and Langkawi. The departure will be at 12 o'clock September 17th ~~having and it will be~~ a seven-hour flight with Mahan Air. Considering the accommodation cost, airplane tickets and daily expenditure for meals and transportation, I've to say that the minimum budget we must allocate is two thousand dollars.

As you may have heard ~~about~~, Malaysia is one of the most fantastic ~~/scenic~~ countries in Asia and there are a variety of places to visit. Having outstanding towering cliffs where you can enjoy unspoiled landscape, Genting Highland is my first priority to go. Moreover, with the most well-known wildlife reserve being located in Langkawi, unless we go there, we will certainly miss the opportunity of seeing some strange animals in the world. Finally, I suggest visiting some ancient buildings which are of considerably high importance.

I would really appreciate if you came with me. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

Vahid
