

Banafsheh

In some areas of the US, a curfew is imposed, in which teenagers are not allowed to be out of doors after a particular time at night unless they are accompanied by an adult.

What is your opinion about this?

In some places of the United States, youngsters are not permitted to be out after a specific time at night, unless they are accompanied by an adult. In my opinion, this is vital in order to have a safe environment and keep them from probable detrimental dangers. All Parents try to make a safe and tranquil ambience to raise their children.

First of all, imposing a curfew especially in deprived places is a necessity. We should consider that criminals and delinquents tend to commit crime throughout nights more than days because they are barely detected at that time. If teens are out without a mature person, imagine what a hazardous incidents and misfortunes will happen?! Furthermore, young teenagers are not mature enough to discern the fraud due to the fact that a curfew seems to be imposed. So, presence of an adult or a parent is essential.

In addition to higher probability of crime rates, at a particular time drug dealers and anti-social groups hide to entice adolescents. Also, teens may land themselves in trouble by befriending such people. It is notable, for example, at this critical age, children do not obey easily, since; it is all their parents' and government's responsibility to take care of them from perils. Therefore, supervision by adults will prevent arising mishaps arising and deter commission of crime among teens.

In conclusion, it is pivotal crucial for teens to be gravely execute /observe/follow the curfew at certain time of the night and unless there is the presence of an adult or a parent is urgent. In other words, outside their houses is insecure so that parents should be wiser and more protective.