

Nowadays many people choose to be self-employed, rather than to work for a company or organization.

Why might this be the case?

What could be the disadvantages of being self-employed?

In contemporary ~~society~~societies, people have ~~been-tend~~eding to have their own business due to some common reasons which often have restricted them to get promotion or lose efficient opportunities. ~~Although-however~~, it could not be possible or profitable many times. Financial and merchandising issues can affect private and new businesses in current competitive markets.

Generally, several people ~~who~~ are working long time in a company or organization especially for job security, wishing that they had their dream job or at least ~~the-an~~ idealistic one. Long working hours, ~~law-low~~ pay, terrible bosses or even ~~collogues-colleagues~~ and unendurable working conditions cause boredom and job dissatisfaction, so many people especially the educated with considerable skills want to go freelance because it would boost their paycheck while maintaining flexibility, ~~it-which~~ means they have personal freedom as well as setting their own schedule and work for many or few hours they would like. Moreover, freelancing include various chances and approaches that could prove to be more lucrative than a full-time job as an employee.

However, people with independent ~~professionals-professions~~ are involved ~~by-in~~ serious issues to develop their business like product marketing and limited budgets. For example making constant efforts for winning new clients and delivering excellent quality and results or affording Initial investment, heavy taxes or loan repayments comprise the critical problems of small firms. Therefore, most of the times ~~s~~ many of these individuals due to lack of experience to manage those basic subjects in related ~~industry-industries~~ would desist from being self-employed.

In conclusion, when people are not able to find the right jobs, being completely independent may not be the only way as a result of its difficulties. They could try the other basic types of their favorite careers like part-time jobs beside the interesting one.
