

Successful sports professionals can earn a great deal more money than people in other important professions. Some people think this is fully justified while others think it is unfair.

Nowadays, there is a heated debate in the majority of countries among people about the huge amounts of money paid to the professional athletes as to whether it's ~~a~~-rightful or not.

Watching sports programs is one of the best ways to eliminate people's tension and leave all their troubles behind as well as ~~plays-playing~~ an important role in our everyday's life. Unlike ~~to~~-the imagination of some ~~publicpeople~~, not only do professionals athletes contribute too much to ~~the~~-society but also achievements they make in sports fields lead to ~~make-making~~ the people very proud. Moreover, the salary of the sports professionals is not determined by the percentage of their contribution ~~of whom~~-to ~~the~~-society. Furthermore, individuals who reach The highest levels in sport must be highly skilled and talented so they deserve the salaries which they earn.

Also it should be noticed d that they retire after the age of forty or even earlier ~~due~~-due to their massive injuries.

By contrast, there are people who argue that sports stars do not offer vital services to the community like other important careers such as doctors who make a great contribution to ~~the~~-society by treating patients while professionals athletes only play for their success~~ful~~ and not the public so this group of people state that they do not ~~reserve~~-deserve to receive the big salaries.

Nevertheless, I personally always watch soccer competitions and also following my favorite players on social media. In addition, I think that the attitude of the people should change about ~~being-unfair-~~sports professionals' wages being unfair since they absorb the attentions of especially mass media and television advertising which is as a results of their brilliant performances, so generally speaking, sports fans are willing to pay much money to watch their favorite stars. Therefore/ so we kind of need ~~a-kind-of~~ them.
