

You have been living in a rental apartment for the past year. Recently a new neighbour moved in and has been making a lot of noise, which disturbs you. Write a letter to the landlord. In your letter

- explain the situation
- describe why it bothers you
- suggest a solution.

Dear Mr. Thompson

This is a letter to request you to take immediate action with regard to Mr. Harrison's inconsiderate behavior and his incapability of avoiding making constant noise/ living in an apartment.

If I am not mistaken, about two days ago, ~~on~~in a brief chat that we shared, I informed you about the problem as to how Mr. Harrison, your new tenant, has caused us a great deal of annoyance.

Since the first day he started to settle in, which I believe was March 15th, he has been disturbing us with his outrageously inappropriate behavior. Unlike your former renter Mr. White, who was a truly quiet neighbor, developing a strong friendship with other residents, Mr. Harrison happens to be a pet owner, and his dog abruptly barks in the middle of the night; so loud that my 4-year-old wakes up in great horror. He also seems to try hard to establish a reputation as the most hospitable person to his own friends. Every single night, he and his jovial friends burst ~~and~~out singing and playing the guitar, not surprisingly late at night.

You should also know Ms. Norton, as well as Mr. Green, is deeply concerned as they too have been deprived of a good night's sleep, but it is I who am bearing the brunt of this disturbance. Therefore, I would like to inform you if a remedy to this situation is not forthcoming within the few days, I am afraid I will have no choice but to exercise my right to take this case to the court and declare a public nuisance.

I am looking forward to your prompt reply in due course.

Yours sincerely,
Edward Scissorhands
