

Some people say that the only reason for learning a foreign language is in order to travel to or work in foreign country. others say that these are not the only reasons why someone should learn a foreign language.

Discuss both these views and give your own opinion.

Ever since the ~~dawn of the internet advance~~, people have been trying to communicate with others, so they need to learn a foreign language. Some people argue that the only purpose of learning another language is because of a job opportunity or traveling to another country. In contrast, others say that it is not the only cause of studying ~~another language~~.

~~We I will discuss explain both views in the scope of this essay of leaning a foreign language only for work or should be another reason.~~

On the one hand, while ~~these it is beneficial are benefits~~ to know a foreign language, there are also drawbacks. The main reason why we learn a foreign language is work is because of the job opportunity we can find. In most ~~civilizations civilized country countries~~, the chief factor accepting foreigners, is based on how they fluent their language skill is.

Speaking with their tongue in the new environment is enough; however, they lack in terms of capability. Most companies need an employer that handles work 12 hours per day and works on their weekend, in other words, companies are looking for multi-task employers.

These are the most prominent pros and cons of learning a foreign language for work.

On the other hand, people should not learn a new language only for a job or travel. The best reason to know a new language is that it offers educational purposes. Considering we can access the best foreign university, it makes sense that you will lose your chance if you do not ~~dominate master~~ their language.

After all, knowing two languages helps us to access two separate worlds.

This essay discussed the reasons for learning a foreign language which are in order to work, travel, or for another reason.

Although both views have merits, I think learning a new language is essential nowadays. To find some privilege in your work abroad, you must know their language, and before you move, you need to travel several times, so you need ~~yo to~~ use their language.
