

Some people believe the purpose of education should be helping the individual to become useful for society, while others believe it should help individuals to achieve their ambitions. Discuss both sides and give your opinion.

In recent years, there is a big controversy surrounding the issue as to whether the aim of learning would be for personal fulfillments or social advancements. I suppose that the object of education could be for both; and reasons for both views would be analyzed in this essay.

It would be true that one of the main goals of a system of education, on the one hand, could be associated with meeting requirements of society ~~in order to so that~~ individuals are entered as an expert into their society. That is because, ~~the~~ most of ~~the~~ courses or books which learners are studying at school and university are based on society needs. Such qualifications, which people gain throughout ~~of~~ their studies, not only might provide an opportunity for countries to make a fortune but also it could contribute to individuals in order to have a calm and friendly atmosphere in their communities. With that aforesaid explanations communities, in the long run would have legions of experts who are poised to assist their own countries when it comes to crises such as flood, earthquake and drought, just to name but a few.

Some people, however, claim that these lessons would develop individuals' ~~s~~ curiosity and lead them to reach their achievements. Those who support this idea believe that the recipient of education after graduation could be efficient for both society and themselves. The example of such merits would be that individuals could start their own business and ~~be are~~ their own boss, so they can earn more money and have an innovative idea to invent some precious gadget and ~~being be~~ wealthy. Such favorable features would be the epitome of people's independence and success.

To sum up, the debate about the aim of education ~~s, sparks a lot of controversy people have different views and~~ some people underpin that it has ~~to~~ been planned for social goals ~~s~~ and others ~~s~~ suppose that ~~should be it is~~ useful for people. From my point of view, it could bring a host of favorable features for ~~both two of which~~
I have 5 suitors two of which/whom are very good, everybody repeat mashallah.
