Aggressive student behavior is one of the major concerns in many countries. This article addresses the reasons behind such behavior and the measures that can be taken to deal with it.

It is clear that a lot of schools have severe problems with their students' personality and attitude. Many of the children are showing negative behavior during attending ~~to~~ school. Some individuals believe that the negative act of the children is mainly due to the lack of attention of the parents. Nowadays, both parents are working these days, and they would only have such a limited time for their children. As a result, some of the children have acted negatively at home or school to get the attention of their parents, teachers or friends. Furthermore, it is undeniable that overusing ~~of~~ virtual games and the internet ~~have~~ has affected the mindset of the children. A lot of children are behaving aggressively due to the games that they often play, which shows a lot of violence and crime scenes. Consequently, several children think that fighting or teasing their friends is a normal activity.

Absolutely, the issue of student behavior is a serious one. appropriate measures should be taken to eliminate the problems at the grass-roots level. Firstly, the school should prepare monthly meetings with students' parents to inform them ~~....~~ of any violent behavior or urge them to consult ~~them with~~ professional advisors. Secondly, Parents should create a pleasant environment at home where a children have independence to express their views that can result in a huge improvement in their behavior outside the home

In conclusion, it is true that the negative behavior is one of the inevitable issues in modern ~~society~~ societies but many people believe that it is due to the lack of attention of parents these days and the impact of video games. Therefore, it is important for the school and parents to cooperate in guiding the children.
