

In many countries, the amount of crime is increasing. What do you think are the main cause of crime? How can we deal with those causes?

Nowadays, with growing population around the world, all countries will face enormous variety of issues than they had in the past. Offence or crime is one of the important issues which many countries must cope. It is inevitable that the possibility of felonious actions or matters will be increasing by soaring in population of human beings according to simple calculations. In this essay major reasons and results and how to cope with them will be discussed.

It is obviously clear that every small and huge communities challenge their minor or major crimes. For instance, in a small community like school, there are some bully students who easily contravene school codes and obviously this is a responsibility for schoolmaster to train them cautiously. Also in a big community such as city or country which is seen lots of lawlessness among people. A primary reason due to people become criminal is poverty. Poor people who cannot afford their basic needs may choose some easiest approaches to earn money which are not legal.

Another reason for people committing a crime is an absence of moral obligations and values. Although the lack of moral values cause the number of criminals rise, schools and governments can address that with educating people ethic and imposing strict laws, respectively. In the other hands, government can play considerable role in this matters, by investing money to the large industries and paving the way for people to have proper career.

In conclusion, I must say that economic issues are one of the most strategic matters of each country as some countries which have been imposed economic sanctions, have enormous issues in their preparation of their essential needs like Iran. Not only are governments and schools responsible for eradicating crime from society, but also there is a necessity to public effort for resolving these difficulties and making their city atmosphere peaceful.