Music is played in every society and culture in the world today. Some people think that music brings only benefits to the individuals and societies. Others, however, think that music can have a negative influence on both.

Discuss both these views and give your own opinion.

In all eras, music was has been one the integral part of individuals and societies. It plays an important role especially in modern societies. Furthermore, it has there is a controversial debate about as to the merits and demerits of music to the community. In this essay, I am going to clarify both views and finally drawing a quick conclusion.

First and foremost, music is one of the vital and crucial parts of each society. Each community has specific and traditional music that shows all aspects of related community and it is like a symbol for that country. Some countries are defined as by their famous music like the Scandinavians regionarea which that when you listen to it, immediately you will find out that it is related to northern part of Europe. In addition, each country in all over the world has dedicated national anthem which represents that country to other nations.

The second merit of music is directly connected to our moods and states. Fast-paced life brings us more anxieties and stresses but when you are listening to a calm or relaxing song, your mind has positive reaction to this kind of music, so you will feel better.

On the other hand, some believes that music has side effects on both people and societies. Nowadays, some music persuades young people to follow crime or rape. Explicit music especially has tremendous ly negative worse effects on teenager's teenagers' mind to in performing illegal activities.

To draw a conclusion, the advantages of music regarding to individuals and societies are outweigh of its disadvantages and without music or songs our community will miss huge connections between generations easily.
