

Many people visit museums when they travel to new places. Why do you think people visit museums? Use specific reasons and examples to support your answer.

Nowadays rate of traveling rises among people worldwide. Most of individuals tend to know better other places and people. From my point of view, the easiest way to achieve this goal is visiting local museum. Everyone can consider visiting a museum as a completion of the adventure of knowing other cultures.

A good illustration of this is that museum is the symbol of local people's life-style. ~~Considering- observation of a city's changes in terms of their lifestyle is only possible changing-of every city's habits-of living, is available only~~ in such places. Museums depict clothes, commodity, dishes, etc. which were used in that area. If you are interested in learning the history of new places, you would enjoy your time in there. Every aspect of history and today's life of all walks of life is gathered in the best style and situation in a museum. Since every museum has a theme, individuals/each can choose based on where is suitabled for their taste. I personally love to know the culture of places by being in a small scale of there. All of the significant symbols in one specific place, can save your time.

On the other hand, Modern art and future of inhabitants of a city are collected all in a gallery. There is no doubt that it can help you to find a vision of different sides of each place. Every governor try to show of how the city where they live, is pioneer in art and science. They provided this theme museum in the best quality. If you love to deal with forthcoming days of the destination where you traveled, you have no other option except visiting this kind of place. For instance the Tehran Museum of Contemporary Art is a perfect example of what I've mentioned above. In this place there are held exhibitions of unique concepts of modern art and some scientific projects that can be attractive to different one's styles.

To sum up the points discussed above, visiting museum is the best choice for every tourist to know a past, today and future of new place.
