

Nowadays more and more people are spending less time at home.

Why do you think it happens? What effect does this have on individuals and ~~the~~ society?

Life in the Modern society has seen dramatic alterations; ~~;~~ one is spending fewer hours at home which is becoming more and more widespread. While this trend has been attributed to various factors, the outcomes of such ~~flow-a trend~~ are manifold.

The tendency toward passing less time in family atmosphere can be perused from multiple angles. First and foremost, this is as a direct consequence of serving multifunctional roles in ~~the~~ society. That is to say, since the primary prerequisite of gaining financial security in today`s competitive society is through working ~~in~~ two or three jobs, ~~thus~~ multitasking has become an integral part of the structure of everyday life; As a result, people have less time spending at home. Secondly, responsibilities and position of individuals ~~is-are~~ experiencing substantial changes in the complicated world of today. It means that divorces, single parent families, living on your own and individualism in general ~~has-have~~ provided the grounds so that people are obliged to undertake dual roles, ~~;~~ this trend ~~has~~ not only ~~has~~ imposed a heavy burden on people, but also ~~has~~ minimized the amount of time that one ~~was-is~~ supposed to be at home. Take single parenting as the most patently obvious example, ~~;~~ roles that traditionally were divided by two sexes, now must be served by the same one, reducing time one stays at home.

The consequences of ~~the~~ prevalence of such ~~a~~ practice are explicit. Spending less time at home will certainly reduce family gathering times, shaping family bonds ,and ~~the~~ most valuable asset of a person, ~~;~~ which is, ~~;~~ experiencing closeness ,kindness and support in family atmosphere will remain inaccessible. If this trend is supposed to continue, the roots of family bonds will rupture. The downsides for sure will affect society as well. People brought up in such structure, won't be able to socialize, trust others and feel unsupported .The more one is mentally hurt, the more society is negatively affected.

To sum up, it could be deduced that dual roles and different responsibilities will tremendously affect the time one stays at home; as a consequence, both individuals and society will suffer.
