

The internet has dramatically altered and lives over the past few decades. Although some of these changes have been negative, the overall effect of this technology has been positive. What are your opinions on this?

That the internet has been the most significant human's invention of history is a deniable fact. In spite of the inevitable drawbacks of this new phenomenon ~~which undoubtedly came with~~, I subscribe ~~belong~~ to the idea that its advantages heavily outweigh its disadvantages. The critical reasons will be addresses in the following paragraphs.

On the one hand, it is incontrovertibly conceded that our different aspects of life have largely been improved by the internet including health, quality of life. For instance, thanks to all information provided by doctors and experts in variety aspects of life and exploring all these information people could find any possible answers by which their general health conditions will be pretty much enhanced. Furthermore, having easy internet access, individuals can be aware of varied places, job opportunities and living conditions all around the world by just a click. Consequently, you need to just encounter an idea~~!~~ or an issue by which your life would change. Consequently, facilitating the possibility of a better life, it is thoughtfully filled by countries' policies, news, strategies led to ~~have-~~ having a more informed aware nation than past.

On the other hand, developed increasingly and fast, even though~~t~~ all media and application based on the internet, have incredibly taken into account as beneficial and useful tools to make life more convenient and joyful as well as ~~have-having~~ decreased the huge amount of expenses, internet crimes and fraud are recently happening more than ever including money fraud transition, violate space / privacy by data access provided by social media like face book. Furthermore, consumerism increased in a huge amount, poverty has largely been spread which result in ~~keeping up with joneses~~ rivalry. That is to say, increased by a great ~~extend~~ extent, family gathering has been inevitably affected. As a result, distance between family members ~~hasis~~ has incredibly widened.

To sum up, considering all drawbacks and positive points of this new trend of the internet which has turned up in various types like media , knowledge , application, entertainment, ~~we-I~~ strongly believe that this huge trend has been crucial for the next generation. It is high time societies and government took the most of this new phenomenon and ~~created~~ made a better life .
