

One of your colleagues recently got a new job at another company. Write a letter to him/her and say

- how you feel about him/her
- what you enjoyed the most while working together, and
- ask what his/her future plans are.

Dear Majid,-

Hi, how is it going buddy? How are Linda and Sam? Has Sam started going to school yet? I really miss you all and the nights that we used to hang around in your uncle 'ss' garden.

I've heard /hear you've got a new job. Congrats! And at Siemens SSK Co?! way to go man! I mean not only have you found the job that you love, a commercial engineer, but also you now get to work in one of the most prestigious companies in the country, if not in the entire world. I was really down in the dumps when you got fired after your fight with Mr.Karimi. However, you definitely made your point that you were way better to work for them.

I never forget the day when I first met you. We were both interns among a bunch of other rookies, working our tails off to make the managers believe we deserved to be there. Remember the day I accidentally deleted the presentation file? Oh, man! It was bananas! And if it wasn't for you I would've gotten canned for sure. Yeah, how you put the slides again together and saved my life I never forget.

However, I wonder what you are up to now? Are you really gonna work there full-time? I know it's a dream job, but it's really hard to imagine you doing a routine five-to-nine job for long. I remember once you said you would like to open a café, and even asked for my assistance. Is that still on the table? 'cause I'm in if you haven't changed your mind.

Can't wait to see you and your lovely family again.

Best wishes

Reza
