

Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? The opinions of celebrities, such as famous entertainers and athletes, are more important to younger people than they are to older people. Use specific reasons and examples to support your answer.

No one can ever deny the significant role of eminent persons ~~in~~in the society especially ~~on~~for the younger people, so they have heavy responsibility and they should be cautious ~~on~~of/about their conduct. Famous people have a lot of fans who have different ages and ~~younger~~youyths are more likely to impressed by them than their older counterparts which I feel ~~this~~ is for some main reasons which I will explain with a couple of examples.

To begin with, younger ages ~~did~~have not gained diverse experiences, so they are more ~~effective~~affected and they reckon celebrities are the symbol of success, so they imitate them. Besides, adults are mature adequately which can ~~get~~make informed decisions in most various subjects but younger people ~~did~~have not reached maturity/age of reason, so they cannot distinguish between right and wrong ~~false and correct~~ subjects. For instance, my little brother is a Liverpool hardcore fan, so he usually gets annoyed ~~and~~ when sport reviewers criticizes the team's performance.

Another point is that younger individuals are more influenced by celebrities than adults because they have more free time compared to older people. Older individuals are too busy because most of them have jobs, ~~projects~~projects and these kinds of activities do not let make/have them ~~to~~ have enough leisure time to cope with these issues and also they are immersed ~~engrossed~~ in their hectic lifestyle. For example, as an example above I am extremely busy compared to my young brother because I go to the university and I have a part-time job, so it is a given fact that I have more preoccupations than him ~~my brothers~~ and I cannot be a big fan of somebody or some teams.

To recap, teenagers are more ~~effective~~influenced by the eminent persons than adults because of their ages they cannot stay logical ~~access age of reason~~ and also they have more free time to be a true-blue fan of somebody or some team. Although all these reasons can be a part of this occurrence, we should not forget it depends on people's personality.
