

The most important decision young people have to make is about choosing their career . do you agree or disagree with this statement ? Give your own opinion and examples.

In this rapidly changing world Pp population growth and technological development have created a very challenging competition among the people in order to find a decent job which is compatible/commensurate with their capabilities and desires.

These days people even those with high levels of education are tackling with the phenomenon which is known as “unemployment “. although thriving of technology has provided a large amount number of new jobs , but it needs to be taken into account that modernization has already altered career's styles, particularly in industries such as ; production and assembling.

Chiefly there are some decisions selection during our life that mold our life style and guarantee our success or failure in our future life. One is choosing a-an adequate major for studying in the tertiary school and university that considers a crucial part of life. this decision will paves the way make you to pave a way no matter whether if you desire or not.

being employed in a job which is suitable for -with your personality and match with- your talents . many, myself me included, argue that the government must be an entrepreneur which is conducive to employing a vast number amount of job seekers. this is a the major prominent concern these days that people are not working within their field of studies which leads to unforeseen and disruptive lost this regards .

unfortunately, We have some cases that- where children from poor families are being exploited by some clients in various jobs . These sweat shops make the children change course pave the other compass rather than follow their desire , so under such circumstances there is no way and they just bow down to these situations.

To sum up , It is valuable that society lets its young members choose their careers considering their requirements and abilities. however, it is inescapable that some ambitious juveniles have counterproductive ideas regarding jobs which renders society prone the society to dangers.
